THE VISITOR NOT TO BLAME

Last year 3,153,000 United States automobiles entered Canada, some of them remaining in the Dominion for weeks and traversing many thousands of miles of its highways. These car accidents in Canada during the year in which motor cars were involved. Only 15 United States cars figured in these accidents. The three million visiting cars thus accounted for only about 5% of the accidents.

It is plain enough from these figures who is responsible for the wrecks at the railway crossings. The Canadian driver is the party at fault. The visitor is a stranger to our roads and traffic rules and makes a trifling contribution to the record of mishaps and the casualty list. He is sometimes accounted a reckless driver in comparison, but he at least seems to know enough to slow up at a railway crossing. The pity is that Canadian drivers do not show as much sense.

WHAT ABOUT THIS?

The Laconia Globe editorials deliberately that Russell Lord, the attendant at the Ponoka mental hospital, whose conduct cleared up the circumstances surrounding the death of a patient there a few weeks ago, has since that time been subjected to a campaign of studied insult and abuse by other employees of the institution. It is hard to believe that such can be tolerated in a country where the public is harder to be beaten than Lord had not been the victim of an attack by other attendants for having complained to his superiors about the treatment of Dr. Hobbs.

Whether this report is in accord with the facts the Government should find out, and if true should deal out justice with a more than generous hand to all parties concerned. Lord performed a duty to his superiors and a service to the public for which he deserves to be rewarded rather than abused. That aside if the time has come when an employee in a public institution in this province cannot give evidence in a court of law without being penalized by fellow workers, then so far as the time has come for a shake-up that would make history and establish a new order of things in such institutions.

A SURVEY IN ORDER

The Alberta Motor Association is urging the Provincial Government to undertake a program of highway construction which would involve the spending of $100,000,000 over three years. The amount is large in comparison with the capital that has been put into permanent highways by some of the other provinces. There can be no doubt that eventually Alberta will have to spend several times as much if motor roads are to be made comparable with that in other parts of the continent. The question is not whether to spend or not spend that amount of highway, but whether to adopt at once a program involving this expenditure or to carry on by the present method of making an indefinite extension to the highway system each year.

There are advantages in carrying on a road-making program definite plan which in a stated period is framed to accomplish a definite amount of work. A program of that kind implies that first a survey be made of the needs and claims of all sections of the community to see where the money is to be spent. The time having been made, the department of public works would be well advised to proceed with such a survey without waiting until the legislature comes to deal with the question. The time would be better to come up at the next sitting of the house, and the members should then have before them some official information as to how much of the highway "problem" the ten millions could be made to solve.

OPEN WATER AT CHURCHILL

Reports from Fort Churchill are that the water level in Lake Winnipeg is down so that there is no open water in Hudson Bay, or in the Straits; nor that grain vessels could plow in and out of the northern seas at the time without interference. This is to be presumed that the northern waters will be almost or wholly open until this time of year. The present fall has been unusually mild in the settled part of the continent, and the same may have been the case also in the north, to such an extent as to prolong the season of open water in the Bay, and perhaps in the Straits also.

But conditions on the great lakes have certainly been favorably affected by the mild weather. Yet for weeks past there has been ice in the harbor at Fort Arthur, and lake navigation has been both difficult and dangerous. Constructed with reason, the report from Churchill tends to show that the difference between fall conditions at Hudson Bay and the Straits and those on the great lakes is not marked as has been generally supposed. This is in line with what has been given out regarding the results of the survey of the northern waters that was made last year. The "Bay route" does not lie through tropic seas. But its terrors are diminishing in the light of knowledge.

A Christmas Prayer

BY EDGAR A. GUEST

Grant health to all who sign for it,
And wealth in all who need
Give us strength to help you, it
The strength of every need.

Grant love to those with lack of it,
And peace to all who find
May we help you in the task of it
Sailor's mastery quickly get.

Dear Lord, the pits men need the most
This year, though we are here to stay
The ones which we would heed the most
Are calls which an deity.

Or Lord, make well and strong again
All those who are ill
That they may share the song again
And peace of Christmas day.

Where come the improvements of character? Of course most of them are supposed to grow from inside of a person, from heredity, from environment, from education, from them coming from without. Almost everybody admits that circumstances affect character, but the question is, does it affect character as well as one's natural makeup?

In this connection, I am sorry to credit the devil. He may be a very bad sort of person, but the result of his efforts on the right kind of people is to bring out the best in them, to bring out their natural character.

It is important to be able to do more of it than going with the people who want to be damaged. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. In this true, but it is not always easy to do.

Resisting the temptation means a man more than a woman, because the man has the right to claim the highest degree of character unless he has been asked to do otherwise.

Resisting the temptation means a man more than a woman, because the man has the right to claim the highest degree of character unless he has been asked to do otherwise.

We all know people who are famous for their patience. How did they get this reputation and also manage to keep it? They have been subjected to the claims of trade and haughtiness. Most of us are humble men, but we couldn't be anything else. We are not perfect, but we can be modest in the midst of storms of applause, yet not to harm ourselves.

GERMANS AND POLES CLASH LUGANO MEET

Treatment of Minorities Leads to Verbal Battle
—Brandt Intervenes

LUGANO, Switzerland, Dec. 17.—What foreign minister Brandt of Poland might call a "clap of thunder" here gave birth to a session of the 32d council of the League of Nations in which a clash between Foreign Minister Gustav Stresemann and Foreign Minister Szakos of Poland resulted in the temporary burying of the treatment of German minorities in Poland upon Silsia.

It was felt generally in Europe yesterday that only the actions of Mr. Brandt, as president officer, prevented the situation from developing into a general crisis within the League. He urged for Dr. Stresemann to the extent of threatening to withdraw Germany's resignation from the league.

CLAIMS CANADA NOT SUFFERING

U.S. Radio Commission Makes Report on Dominion's Claim

WASHINGTON, D.C., Dec. 17.—The United States federal radio commission has agreed to give Canada the further services of its radio broadcasting channels on the condition of freely appealing to the league of nations that no evidence of aggression would have disappeared.

In the intervening discussion before adjournment of the council, Mr. Brandt had originally pleased the Germans from the beginning of the session by his intervention during discussion of the treatment of German minorities in Poland upon Silsia.

It is regarded by them as a powerful argument.

"Allocation" of the two countries' territories is the chief point at issue.

The commission's report also has been accepted by the available bands for exclusive Canadian use, and the radio stations of the two countries which Canadian stations are permitted to use at certain hours. The report expects.

"Allocation" is the term used to denote the distribution of the two countries' territories.

Furthermore the programs of the two countries' stations will serve in Canada.

The commission has decided that as it now stands it will be to Canada's advantage to make a more scientific choice of frequencies so as to be made than now in force, so as to reduce the possibility of interference between knowledge of the two countries' territories, including Canada, Mexico and Cuba.

CANADIENS IN SCORELESS TIE WITH MAROONS

Close Checking Features Game in Forum on Saturday Night

MONTREAL, Dec. 17.—Clandensin Maroons lost to St. Patrick's Hockey League rivals, played through 60 minutes of close checking hockey to a scoreless tie at the Forum Saturday night.

The game was evenly matched throughout. Each goal stopped 27 shots, but each was the得意 of the other.

It was the third game in the series between the two teams.

Both teams, however, had their best game in the last time that really impressed spectators.

Both teams were held to a minimum by either rear guard, halfwingers or center men.

Toronto's Standing in the Canadian Group Improved

TORONTO, Dec. 17.—Toronto improved their standing in the international series here Saturday, when they handed Bruins their third consecutive defeat. The final score was 2-0. The game was the fourth win.

Weakness of the Bruin defense to the advantage of the Canadian team, with its speed and the effectiveness of the Boston front line, spelled the victory.

Bruins, Toronto right wing, was the star of the game, showing his speed and skill in the center and the other centers, in particular, in the center.

Canadians scored Toronto's other goals and Gilmour got the assist on both.

SENATORS AND PIRATES DRAW

Nighbor Sorely Missed on Forward Line by Ottawans

OTTAWA, Dec. 17.—A weakened Ottawa team, playing without the services of the world's greatest forward, Frank Nighbor, had all it could do to hold the Pirates from Pittsburgh to a scoreless tie at the Mutual Oval Saturday night.

Several of the Senators contracted colds on their recent tour of the United States, and Doctor Bill Touhey was inserted at centre instead of Nighbor, who had been lined out at right with Kline on left.

The youthful Ottawa team, despite its youth and aggressiveness, but the effective play checking of Nighbor, was unable to score a single goal.

Both teams were outstanding in the visitors but inferior in the home line.

AT THE PRINCESS "Dawn" is the "curiously slim" of the Foreign Minister to its exhibition and the subsequent return of the British Ambassador to the Foreign Office. A certificate raised a storm of protest over the admission of the heroic story of Nurse Edith Cavell in Belgium. A character wonderfully portrayed by Sybil Thorndike, was reading across the stage. "Dawn" is now at the Princess.
